

THE WEEK'S GOSSIP

Personal Mention Is Heard Around Town About Men Who Are Prominent in Public Affairs.

Talk That Is Going the Rounds as to the Doings of Leading People.

John A. Mahoney is a good man to place on the Municipal Court bench.

The voters of the Twenty-first District are going to re-elect Benjamin M. Mitchell to the Legislature by a record-breaking vote.

Robert E. Wilson's big army of friends predict his re-election to the Legislature in the Sixth District by a big plurality.

As one of Chicago's foremost business men, Albert G. Wheeler enjoys the confidence at all times of the people.

Both as a judge and as a citizen Edward Osgood Brown is admired by all who come in contact with him.

Judge Edward Osgood Brown is one of the hardest working and most painstaking judges the people of Cook county have ever had.

Frank H. Novak is deservedly popular throughout Chicago, both as a lawyer and as a citizen.

No man stands higher in the estimation of the people of Illinois than former United States Senator Albert J. Hopkins.

One of the best judges on the Municipal Court bench is Judge John R.

Caverly. He is able, energetic and conscientious.

The elevation of James S. Hopkins, the popular attorney and Master-in-Chancery, to the bench would be a source of pleasure to everyone of his big army of friends.

Judge John E. Owens enjoys the confidence and highest esteem of all Chicagoans.

The re-election of Congressman Lynden Evans by a big plurality is certain. The people of the Ninth District know a good congressman when they see one.

No man in the Illinois Legislature has an abler or a cleaner record to his credit than John McLaughlin of the Nineteenth District. He is one of the best men ever sent to Springfield.

Alderman Henry D. Capitani of the Twenty-fifth ward has proven himself to be the right man in the right place. He is forceful, industrious and devoted to public interests.

As a lawyer, a citizen and a political leader, Albert H. Putney's record is a clean and honorable one in every respect.

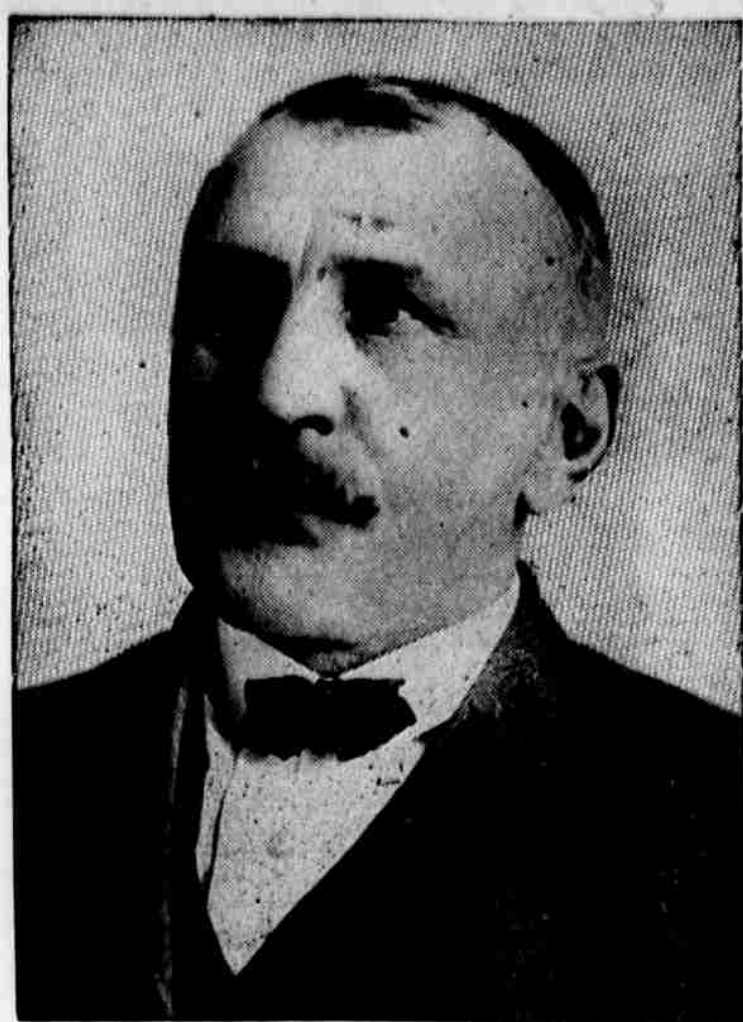

Alderman Irwin R. Hazen of the Thirty-third ward is making a fine record in the city council. Alderman Hazen is a student of municipal problems and is a man of ability, character and force.

William Hale Thompson is being boomed by many of his friends for City Treasurer.

President of the Sanitary District Thomas A. Smyth is making the kind of a record the people like.

New street lights are needed in Chicago.

The honest, clean and fearless record being made by President of the

PETER BARTEN,
Candidate for Re-election as President of the County Board.

Sanitary District Thomas A. Smyth being noted by the people. More officials like him are needed.

Spencer Ward's grand record as a lawyer and a citizen commends him to the people as the right man to select Chief Justice of the Municipal Courts next November.

Confiscation of small property holdings is what the great increase in real estate taxation will amount to before long. The revenue this year is over 100 per cent in many instances and over 40 per cent in the great majority of cases.

The telephone company, according to "experts," is losing money. For a losing enterprise it pays pretty big dividends and puts up pretty big buildings.

Morton T. Culver, one of Chicago's leading attorneys, is a man who would serve with credit in any office within the gift of the people.

The county democracy will be the banner Democratic organization at the Baltimore convention.

Why is it that the telephone company has not been obliged to remove its poles and bury its wires in the costly, newly paved north side alleys? Why?

Alderman Bellfuss' move to prevent the spread of business into "residence districts" is another scheme to confine the business of the city to the downtown loop.

The big department store of W. Kolacek and company, 2030-2042 Milwaukee avenue, has no peer of its kind in Chicago. It is essentially a store for everybody. Highest qualities and lowest prices.

No better place in Chicago for picnics, festivals and parties of all kinds than E. James Kohler's beautiful Electric Park, at the corner of Irving Park boulevard and Northwest 64th street.

People looking for a beautiful home in a pretty, healthful and convenient location should pay a visit to beautiful Albany Park, the largest subdivision ever laid out in any one time in Chicago. It is located right at the terminal station of the Ravenswood branch of the Northwestern Elevated Railroad, with the Kedzie and Lawrence stations on the property. Further information can be had at the office of M. J. Faherty, real estate and builder, either at Lawrence and Kimball avenues or at Kedzie and Eastwood avenues.

Rudolph Colman, 516 North Clark street, is the sole agent for the United States for Schlitz-Brewery, Carlsberg, Pilsen, Hofbräuhaus, München, Beck's-Brewery, Bremen. The Chicago office is under the management of Wm. Schumacher.

For the smart tailoring at moderate prices go to Tanager & Canby, Beaser block. They stand in the front ranks of Chicago's leading tailors. Tuxedos and full dress suits can be rented.

The Fair is Chicago's foremost department store and is also the safest. It abounds with splendid assortments of merchandise exclusively for the use of men.

We wonder the business of the Brand Brewing Company, at 1251 Huron avenue, increased over 100 per cent during 1911. Their famous "Extra" brew has a world-wide reputation.

The Home Brewery is not only Chicago's youngest brewery, but it is one of her most successful. No brewery in the United States ever achieved success in such a short time as the Home Brewery. Its beer already has a reputation among the lovers of good beer as being par excellence. The Home Brewery also bottles its beer and a case can be had by calling up Humboldt 9810.

The A. H. Meyer Company, 35 South Dearborn street, the well-known importers of beer, announce the first arrival of their celebrated Lowenbrau bock beer. This beer is well known to lovers of good beer the world over. The Chicago offices of the A. H. Meyer Co. are under the able and popular management of H. N. Clausen, for fifteen years connected with the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Company. Mr. Clausen has done grand work for the big company he represents and is to be congratulated upon the splendid success it has met with in Chicago.
